

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

The Sheriff's Office is organized as shown in the chart below using a Chain of Command organizational structure. Chain of Command is a hierarchy of authority where those at the top of the organization direct and control the activities of the personnel below them.

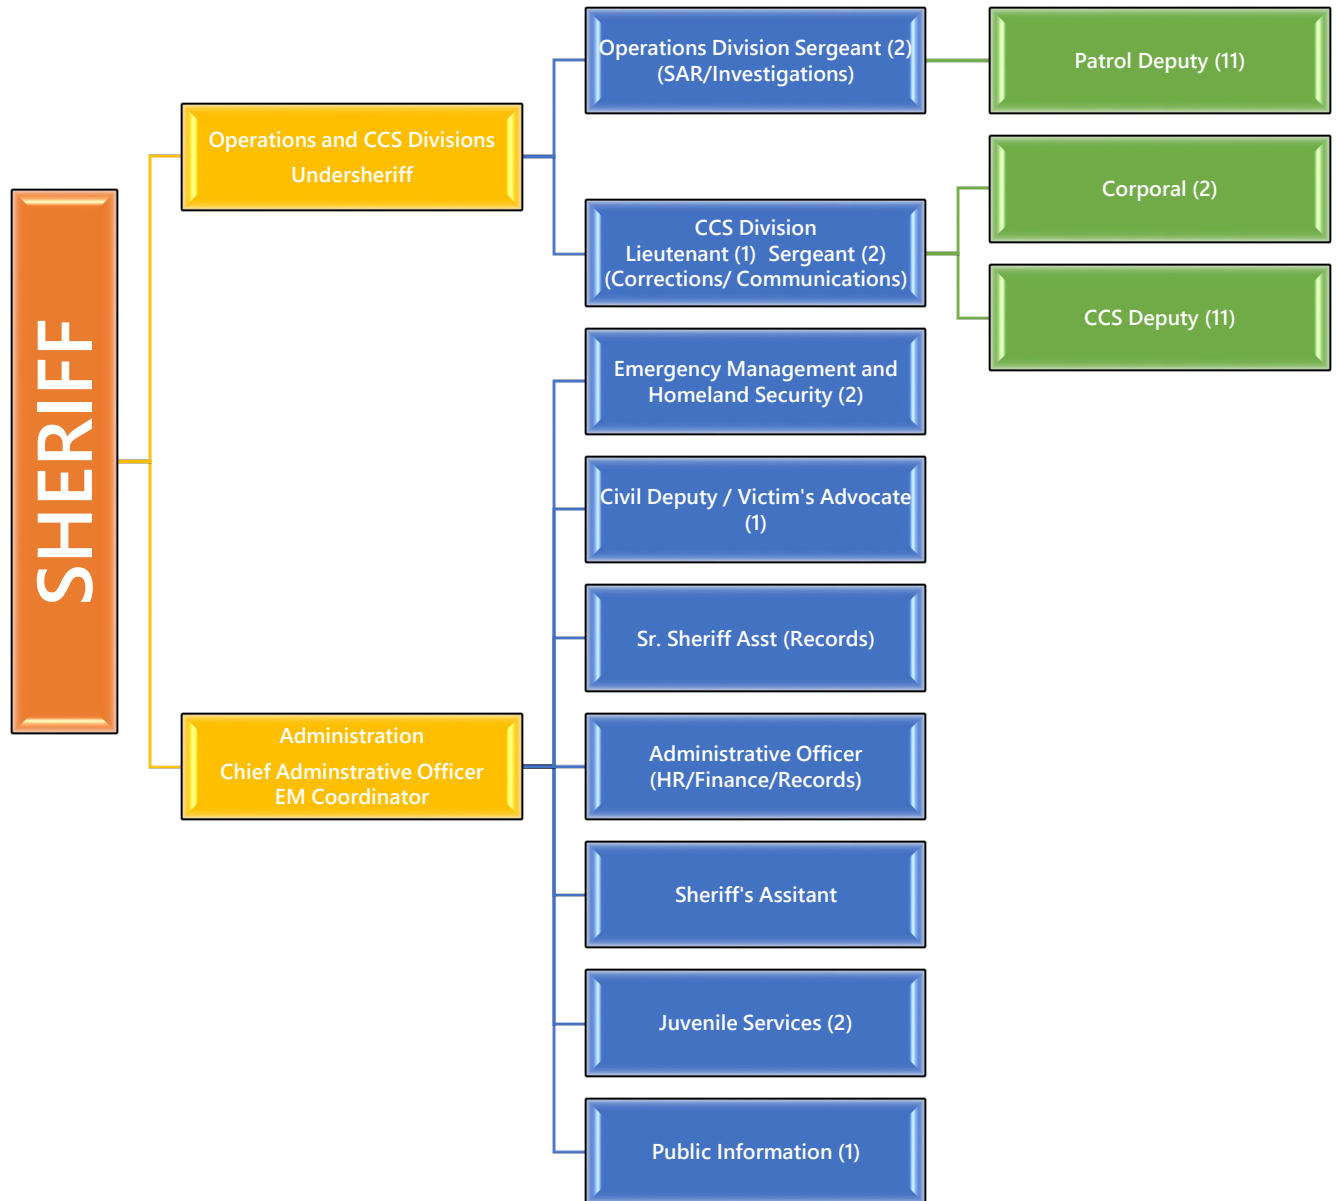

Figure 1. Sheriff's Office Organizational Chart